Gamayun Tales I

Follow two abolitionists who fought one of the most shockingly

persistent evils of the world: human trafficking and

sexual exploitation of slaves. Told in alternating chapters from perspectives spanning more than a century apart, read the riveting 19th century first-hand account of Harriet Jacobs and the modern-day

eyewitness account of
Timothy Ballard.
Harriet Jacobs was an African-American, born into slavery in North Carolina in 1813. She thwarted the sexual advances
of her master for years until she escaped and hid in the attic crawl space of her grandmother's house for seven years before escaping north to freedom. She published an autobiography of her life, Incidents

beautifully designed journal is ideal for both elementary age, up to the early teen years. Your child will be able to think about how they feel each day, track their mood and key aspects of their day.

Each day has two pages to work with. On the first page.... The child is asked to identify their key emotion for the day by circling the most relevant emoji. There's then a space for the child to identify 3 great things that happened that day, to encourage positive thinking and gratitude.

There's a space for your child to identify someone that's particularly helped them, or
