

Srpski Za Strance

Imparting the story of the systematic 1942 execution of five thousand Belgrade concentration camp prisoners in a transport truck, a schoolteacher recreates historical events for his students on a school bus, an endeavor that overwhelms the teacher with the brutality of the act. Reprint.

A Guide to the Serbian Mentality

početni

This collective monograph is the first data-oriented, empirical in-depth study of the system of clitics on Bosnian, Croatian, and Serbian. It fills the gap between the theoretical and normative literature by including solid data on variation found in spoken language and obtained from massive Web Corpora and speakers' acceptability judgements. The authors investigate the primary sources of variation: inventory, placement and morphological processes. A separate part of the book is devoted to the phenomenon of clitic climbing, the major challenge for any syntactic theory. The theory of complexity serves as the tool to analyze the very diverse constraints on clitic climbing established in the empirical studies. It allows to construct a series of models where the factors relevant for predicting clitic climbing interact with each other. Thus, the study pushes our understanding from fine-grained descriptions and syntactic generalisations towards a probabilistic modelling of syntax.

Set in a luxurious grand hotel just outside Lisbon, at the height of the Second World War, Estoril is a delightful and poignant novel about exile, divided loyalties, fear and survival. The hotel's guests include spies, fallen kings, refugees from the Balkans, Nazis, American diplomats and stateless Jews. The Portuguese secret police broodingly observe the visitors, terrified that their country's neutrality will be compromised. The novel seamlessly fuses the stories of its invented characters with appearances by historical figures like the ex-King Carol of Romania, the great Polish pianist Jan Paderewski, the British agent Ian Fleming, the Russian chess grandmaster Alexander Alekhine and the French writer and flyer Antoine de St Exupery, who forms a poignant friendship with a young Jewish boy living alone in the hotel.
