Brian Whitfield Jan , 07 , 2010 wrote a book of study in which virtuous lord is teacher and virtuous heir is student. Virtuous lord gives his example introduction and wisdom for the student to revise and apply his or her own preferred examples. This book is meant for the individual that loves to uphold peace and prosperity , but understands war and destruction as a means of survival. Generally for soldiers , officers , prestigious rulers , religious leaders , community leaders , and responsible guardians also. I pray this book helps you sustain , endure , and keeps you obedient to your respected superiors. Also I hope this book builds stronger character in you and stronger commitment to all which you value. Topic 26 : Treasure I argue treasure is warriors , or that it is a (Ruler) most valued commodity esp. on battlegrounds. Virtuous Prince states warriors lead to treasure and treasure leads to warriors , and that it could break a rulers heart to be forced to leave treasure behind. Treasure rules everything around me , because treasure loves treasure. Treasure life , love , and happiness. Abusing treasure , or considered stealing without consent is folly concerning anothers treasure. Topic 40 : Rest I argue rest is peace , or that which keeps the territory comfortable. Virtuous Prince states where there is anger there is no rest , where there is no anger there is rest , where there is laughter there is no rest , and without work it is hard to rest. When no battles are going on learn your energy and reserve it as much as possible. To hate rest your more productive , full of energy , not tired , or that when you hate to rest your more considered a disturbance , in love with war , or blindly out looking for trouble? To love rest your fatigue and tired , or that when you rest your more at peace with your environment and reluctant to war .

What caused a former Dallas Seminary professor to believe that the miraculous gifts of the Holy Spirit are being given today? What convinced someone skeptical about miracles that God still speaks and heals? A dramatic change took place in Jack Deere's life when he took a fresh look at the Scriptures. He discovered that his cherished arguments against miraculous gifts were based more on prejudice and a lack of personal experience than on the Bible. As soon as Deere became a seeker instead of a skeptic, the Holy Spirit revealed himself in new and surprising ways. In Surprised by the Power of the Spirit, Jack Deere provides a strong biblical defense for the Spirit's speaking and healing ministries today. He also describes several reliable cases of people who were miraculously healed or who heard God speak in an unmistakable way. Finally, he gives sound advice for using spiritual gifts in the church. Written in popular style-with the care of a scholar but the passion of personal experience-this book is a vital resource for people on both sides of the debate about miraculous gifts. This book is written for my sons and is a patchwork of my thoughts, prayers, journal entries, and emails. These emails, etc. were written to family, friends, and the youth group students I have had the privilege of getting to know and love for the past 25 years. Some of the questions I get are about creation/evolution, the deity of Christ, the end times as well as personal issues such as sexual purity, and how to live a holy life. Part of the book is also about the journey God has brought me through in my personal life. My hope is that however God uses this book, that it pleases and glorifies Him.

For many Christians, prayer is an obligation that has little bearing on everyday life. The story of the 24/7 prayer movement demonstrates in gripping detail how prayer is far more than an obligation and how God is far more interested in prayer than we are. Continuing to chronicle the life and extraordinary ministry of the 24/7 prayer movement for a readership anxiously awaiting this title, Pete Greig tells story after story of God ' s faithful interaction with human prayer to change lives and cultures. The primary basis of all judgement concerning the deeds done in our bodies is our motives. Our values determine our motives, and our motives are the real reason behind our thoughts, words, and deeds. Only God can see the true motives of every man's heart. Almost all human beings have something to hide. Nearly everyone twists words, events, and situations to their own advantage, to place themselves in the best possible light. Men often have ulterior motives and hidden agendas. This is sin and a form of hiding. Adam and Eve first hid from the presence of the Lord in the garden after they had fallen. But there will be no hiding from the presence of the Lord on that solemn Day of Judgement. Purity of Heart will prepare you for that day and spare you loss at the judgement seat of Christ, so that you may receive your full reward. What is done in pure love, by the leading of the Spirit, and for the glory and honor of God shall reap the fullest rewards.

Show Me Your Glory explores the current experiences associated with the presence of God manifested in the lives of His people. The author draws parallels between these

The power of an encounter with God is shown to be a way of changing our hearts and moving us into deeper intimacy with God. The reader will be encouraged and shown how to press into the Glory of God and experience all that the Father has for him. Christians who have longed for a deeper intimacy, whose hearts cry out for God's glory will be encouraged that their hopes, prayers and dreams are not in vain. Show me your glory is an inspirational short read designed to teach you five simple, yet practical steps to unleash more of God's life changing Glory into your everyday life. Complete with scripture references to meditate on, this book helps you apply what you've read for maximum impact in your walk with Christ.

Death and suffering are inevitable parts of life. Some die young, making death seem senseless and cruel. Why would a good God inflict such suffering amidst the cries for help and a miracle? Even the cries of the faithful followers of Jesus are ignored. Is He real? This book is about my personal journey with cancer patients and their families. It is about understanding God's great end-time plan and believing that He had us on His mind for an eternal purpose. This purpose was uniquely woven through the intricacies of life's challenges by the Master's hand; to develop the mind and character of Christ, ultimately for His Glory and reconciliation with Him in Heaven. Death is not to be feared. Pain and death serve a purpose. Many lives are transformed. "And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose” (Romans 8:28). When you open your heart to His love and healing, pain will turn into ministry. Heaven is real! Glory is a two-hundred volume long song and poem of praise and worship to God and to the saving grace of Jesus Christ, it is for praise and thankfulness, for gratefulness and our complete adoration for the King of Heaven, the creator of our souls. May we always praise Him and give thanks here and now and in Heaven within eternity. God inspires me to write every day, I try to write whenever I can, He has put on my heart that I should do whatever I can to write and praise Him in my writings, these writings are no my own but God's, He has done all the inspiring and given me the strength and life to write what I have, he gives my fingers the strength to go on and write more and express my soul and heart, he is life. Let us continue to be inspired by Him every day and be encouraged through His word of life, the Bible, let us continue to read and express the love that is within the Bible, the truth and mercy and compassion, the forgiveness and justice.

Tabernacles in the En-Gedi Desert near Jerusalem, comes A RUSHING MIGHTY WIND by Angus Buchan. With sharp attention to detail Buchan fervently testifies how he, together with 4,500 believers, experienced the reality of the Holy Spirit - the tangible presence of God. He explains how this moving of the Holy Spirit is similar to what was experienced by the early church as described in Acts 2, and how it highlights numerous past revivals all throughout history. A RUSHING MIGHTY WIND is a stirring book that will remind readers that the Lord is not just a historical figure, but that He is alive and at work, and that He is with us - always.

Bob Sjogren and Gerald Robison reflect on the God-given traits of cats ("you exist to serve me") and dogs ("I exist to serve you"), and point out the same dichotomy at work in the theological attitudes of many Christians. Unlike the house pet, however, human beings are capable of rethinking their relationship with the Master.

By combining stories from the Bible with stories of contemporary men and women who have experienced miracles or angels, Ann helps readers recognize the hand of a loving, all-powerful God at work in this world of anxiety and uncertainty. Anyone who has longed for a miracle will take heart from the remarkable stories in this book. They remind us that, even in the midst of trouble and trial, one thing remains true: We belong to a God who is eager and able to care for us through his wisdom, kindness, and unfailing mercy. This book is Sally Stanley's incredible journey and amazing testimony of God giving her "The Power To Go On." Stricken with a staph infection which produced large painful sores all over her body, she was rushed into surgery, where the surgeon accidentally severed the main artery to her heart, causing blood to flood her chest cavity, which resulted with her dying on the operating table. This resulted in her "after death or out-of-body experience" and miraculous encounter with The Lord, as He spoke these marvelous words, "You have been chosen by God and your work is not finished." Upon her immediate restoration, she spent weeks on a ventilator and had several months of physical therapy. Over the next several years, Sally has experienced and recovered from a fractured vertebrae, several strokes, and heart attacks. During this time period she also cared for her husband John, after he experienced seizures and strokes, which finally lead to his death on December 12, 2013. Then in May of 2014, while walking in a pedestrian crosswalk, she was suddenly hit by an automobile, suffering multiple injuries, including a shattered right shoulder and broken neck. Sally tells everyone that over the past 20 years, many miracles have happened in my life, but faith in Christ has given me "The Power To Go On." "I hope that everyone who reads this book will understand that with God, all things are possible. It is so great to know that we have Jesus walking with us each and every day."

In his classic Surprised by the Power of the Spirit, Jack Deere looked at the reason why many Christians (including himself at the time) struggle to believe in miraculous gifts, and he provided a groundbreaking biblical defense of the Holy Spirit's speaking and healing activities today. In Why I Am Still Surprised by the Power of the Spirit, the former Dallas Seminary professor revisits his earlier subject matter with fresh insight and even stronger conviction: the Scriptures teach that God is healing and speaking today just as he did 2,000 years ago. Having almost entirely rewritten Surprised by the Power of the Spirit, this new edition comes at a time when the theological landscape has dramatically changed, and most evangelicals do believe in all the gifts of the Spirit. But many of us are still unsure how to understand those gifts, and there is much confusion today on what it means to be filled with the Spirit. This book is for those familiar with Deere's work and for newcomers alike. In it, he:

- Explains the nature of spiritual gifts, defining each of them.
- Offers sound advice on discovering and using spiritual gifts in church.
- Tells documented stories of modern miracles and encounters with demonic powers.
- Examines the New Testament use of the phrase "filled with the Spirit" to show why and how God still fills his servants with the Holy Spirit.
- Introduces the newest literature defending and explaining the gifts of the Spirit.

and the passion of personal experience, this new edition builds upon the legacy of Surprised by the Power of the Spirit and the profound impact it's had among Christians of many traditions.

“Knowledge held within is dead knowledge. Share it with others, and then it is resurrected.” These are words that Apostle Dr. Muriel Avant Fuqua lives by.

Though, throughout her life, there have been plenty of things she'd rather have kept silent about, she has learned, firsthand, that it is these very traumas that must be brought into the light so their power can be broken and healing can begin. A shining example of the necessity to speak out—and a cautionary tale about the harm and dysfunction that results from silence—this empowering memoir is about overcoming the debilitating pain of abuse and infidelity through the healing power of a loving God. At the same time, Dr. Fuqua's debut book serves as an excellent educational source on the challenging issues of women in ministry and church hurt. Over the years, Dr. Fuqua has experienced more than her fair share of pain, but she has also discovered the amazing truth that God can truly renew brokenness. And her life, her marriage, and her church all declare the good news. Discover for

It is Dr. Catherine Braswells opinion that in our daily walk as a Christian, reading, studying, and learning the Word of God (Bible) is very important. But over the course of years, I have noticed that as Christians, it is very hard for many of us to take what we have learned and walk it out from day to day. We can read the Bible and tell others what we have read, but very few of us can actually take the words of the scripture and apply them to daily crisis. For this reason, I would like to introduce you to a guide that will teach you how to walk daily in the Word of God! As Christians, we are the generation where many Bible prophecies are being fulfilled right now. When darkness covers the earth and thick darkness is over the peoples, but the LORD rises upon us and his glory appears over us. We are going to see the knowledge of the glory of God unveiled to His people to its fullness that the earth is filled with the knowledge of the glory of God like the waters cover the sea. The knowledge of the glory of God is the full gospel described in Acts 26:18. It is not only we receive forgiveness of sins as Christians but also receive our heavenly inheritance. The glory of God belongs to spiritually mature Christians. They have grown in the perfection of their salvation from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to the power of God. They are empowered by the Holy Spirit and overcome the evil one and become spiritually mature in Christ. They enter the kingdom of heaven and receive their eternal life NOW on earth. The eternal life is the eternal glory, which is also our heavenly inheritance to restore God's image and likeness on His children. Through the baptism of the Holy Spirit, Christians shall enter the kingdom of heaven to receive their inheritance through Christ and continue living a Spirit-empowered life, and being transformed into His likeness with ever-increasing glory just like Jesus who is the image of God. Ultimately, we become victorious and glorious Christians and are prepared ourselves to be the bride churches for Jesus' second coming.
