"Cage of Bone" is a collection of poetry and prose about survival, hope, loss and the persistent feeling of having no control. "Cage of Bone" will take readers into the darkest parts of what it means to be human and mostly what it means to be a woman, in a rough and raw voice, driven from the depths of the alleys mother warned you to stay away from. The game of life is hard to play, but if you win you better change, the thorns gripped tight but then gave way...But instead of becoming a beacon, I became the monster, I became a black hole. This is the first book in the "Black Hole" collection of short poetry books. Each book in the black hole series can be read as a standalone.

The Climate of Darkness Jack McAfghan Reflections on Life with My Master

Reflections on Life with My Master

An expert communicator, Jack McAfghan writes the memoirs of his four-legged life as a mixed-breed Afghan Hound. From obedience and agility training to hospice work, Jack and his master learn their lessons side by side, inevitably applying what they have learned as their own lives unfold. It is a love story that can be used as an informal study guide for those who are in the process of training a dog, learning to love, or grieving over the loss of a friend. Jack presents with a wise, open and informed mind. He speaks firsthand about the psychological aspects of canine behavior as he opens the reader's mind to the possibilities that exist in life and after death. He reminds us that the way we think can change the course of our lives. This story will touch everyone who has ever loved. It matters not if they have four legs or two. Jack leads us to a higher love as he expands our tolerance and compassion for all of humanity. He extends himself to every creature of the earth, every human on the planet, every spirit in the universe and most of all, to the bona fide Master over all.
