Only in this secret place hidden in the arms of her beloved, her ear pressed against His heart, can a woman be complete." Written with baby boomer women in mind, the timeless principles apply to any Christian woman, no matter what her age or background. It's the End of Church as We Know It reflects a growing dissatisfaction with the current state of the church, saying there must be more God has for Christians outside of the box. Lawson is concerned that new believers are not only being catered to with faddish trends, but they are not being invited to experience a supernatural God.
