"The Amazing Book of No" is a deceptively simple

Access Free Time For Kids Almanac 2013

story that will teach your 3-7 year old how to accept the word "no" when you say it, and why they shouldn't argue. The story is about two moms and their children. One mom says "no" all the time, while the other

says "yes" to everything. It is cute and engaging all in one, and designed not to take up too much of a parents valuable time, with the idea being to try and imprint wholesome ideals while kids are young. Reading this just a few times to your boy or girl at bedtime will ensure you don't have any misunderstandings with your children about the word "NO" as they grow older. This really is: The Amazing

"Blimp, blorp, blimp, bloop. Suzy gripped her sheets tightly. Was that

noise coming from under her bed?"
Helps Children
Banish Bedtime
Fears So begins
Suzy's adventure
where she meets Karrit, another
child, and one that lives far under her
bed. The two children banish

Access Free Time For Kids Almanac 2013

their bedtime fears and become best friends by treating each other the way that they want to be treated. A Fear of Monsters is Common A fear of monsters under the bed is common with children of all ages, starting with a vague sense of the unknown with younger toddlers and graduating to perhaps a more solid image in the minds of older children. The Monster on Top of the Bed flips the idea around, like the famous Disney

Access Free Time For Kids Almanac 2013

Access Free Time For Kids Almanac 2013

Movie Monsters Inc., and bases the story on the concept that it's the monsters that are actually afraid of the children. The Children Model The Golden Rule In this beautifully illustrated book we meet two children--Suzy and Karrit, and we discover that sometimes things are not always what they seem and when the monster fears the child, we come to see a different perspective on misunderstandings

Access Free Time For Kids Almanac 2013

Access Free Time For Kids Almanac 2013.

and ignorance. We also discover that it is easy to misinterpret the meanings of words and actions, when Karrit explains to Suzy that certain things she says and does, frightens him. Although the words, "The Golden Rule" never appear in the book, the way the two children treat each other as though they would like to be treated enable the two of them to work together to work out their differences. A friendship forms,

Access Free Time For Kids Almanac 2013

and a new light is
shed upon them
both when they realize that maybe they aren't so different from each other after all. A Mantra that Banishes
Nighttime

Access Free Time For Kids Almanac 2013

Fears When things get scary, both children use Grandmom's mantra, which is highly effective in banishing monsters, "“You're welcome to stay until I say, 'Nay!' Then it's time to go, and you can't say, 'no.'"This is an empowering bedtime story. The multimedia edition contains a link to an .mp4 file that features the same audio tracks in the CD version.

Children can listen to the story being read by four narrators who read the story in English, Spanish and Italian. There are page turning sounds to let the child know when to turn the page.

There are slight differences between the words in CD version and the Kindle version. Children like the challenge of finding the differences. In addition to reading the story, the multimedia kindle edition also contains bonus material, including an interview with

Access Free Time For Kids Almanac 2013
