Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts (1) We have not used OCR(Optical Character Recognition), as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos. (2) In books where there are images such as portraits, maps, sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images, so they represent accurately the original artefact. Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts, we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy.

Excerpt from The Tonic Sol-Fa Music Reader, Revised and Improved: A Course of Instruction and Practice in the Tonic Sol-Fa Method of Teaching Singing, With a Choice Collection of Music Suitable for Day Schools and Singing Schools A great advantage of the Tonic Sol-fa method is that it is really a system, from beginning to end. One of the most useful features of the method is the arrangement of the course of instruction in a series of graded steps. The close of each step is intended as a point at which the work should be revised, and the standing of each pupil ascertained before proceeding to the next. Any thing which is left dimly understood or imperfectly practiced in one step, is only a legacy of so much confusion, weakness and discouragement handed over to the next. How many lessons will be required to teach each step it is difficult to say, without knowing the kind of class. The teacher should be guarded against hurry rather than delay.
