To Train Up a Child No Greater Joy Ministries

It is written: And Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the LORD (Genesis 4:1). It is also written: And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, Who are those with thee? And he said, The children which God hath graciously given thy servant (Genesis 33:5). Granted, the Bible doesn't go on to say Then Adam knew Eve his wife again, and she bare Paula or Barbara or Stephanie or Lisa. However, since man has not proven otherwise, it's evident that children come from God. And according to Psalm 127:3; children are a heritage of the Lord and that the fruit of the womb is his reward. Now toy companies, car manufacturers, and electronic engineers all provide instructions for taking care of and repairing their products. Is it not reasonable to believe that God, the Creator and Ruler of the universe, would do as much and more in giving the gift of life? This is the second book of a series is a collaboration of chapters taken from the author's original book entitled Let Integrity and Uprightness Preserve Me . . . It was written to give all parents, grandparents, and anyone caring for children God's instructions on how to bring these amazing little human beings up in the way they should go, in the love and admonition of the Lord and all for the glory of God.

Presents symptom lists to help parents easily diagnose their children's behavioral issues and decide on biblical solutions, addressing such topics as cultivating a good work-ethic, stopping whining and sass, and disciplining with love.

"Prudence LaBeach Pollard draws from years of prayerful study, academic training, and personal experience to provide encouragement and biblical guidance on such topics as: parental responsibility, supportive relationships, healthy communication, clearly defined boundaries, genuine self-esteem, character development, and Christ-centered values." -- Publisher description

Finding God in the Lord of the Rings

I found this book on Bookbub, and am thrilled with what I've read. I wish every Christian would read it--especially every pastor and leader. My husband (who is a pastor) and I had already come to these conclusions before I found this book, but it gives me great hope that others are seeing the same disastrous problems. We have created a "monster" that we call "church" which little resembles the New Testament kind, and people are fleeing it. For all the promise of the "contemporary" style church, it isn't really much better. The church is failing to make disciples and failing to make any real impact in the culture, and it's all because we have failed to make authentic (true) converts. It's that simple. It's easy to make a disciple of someone who has been truly converted. Otherwise, with our usual crop of "decisions," it's like pushing a rope to get any serious commitment or Christlikeness out of them. The Bible says that Jesus is the Door, but to be brutally honest, the only way through that Door is to crawl--in repentance, submission (brokenness), and faith. We are no different than the church of the Middle Ages that baptized babies for salvation, leaving millions of people still in their sins. There isn't really any such thing as "a church for the unchurched" as many like to claim today. We should be the church of the redeemed, but we have become a church of the unsubmitive, unrepentant, unconverted, uncommitted, and unfaithful. And it all goes back to one thing--real salvation thru real repentance and real faith in Jesus Christ."-M.J. Freeman ..".
thought provoking book showing true believers in Jesus Christ the need to examine the methods we are using to evangelize our children... the author backs up all of her writing with scripture, the true Word of God." -Alicia Canner "
...Wow what an eye opener, it opened my eyes to the real meaning of being born again. Not only a book to help with the youth but for everyone..."-Malinda Zemrose
As Christian women, there is probably nothing more heartbreaking than seeing our children turn from God. We spend thousands of dollars, and sacrifice countless hours to VBS, Bible clubs, Youth outings, Church camp, and children's parties every year. We build elaborate stage sets, plan fantastic carnivals, and youth extravaganzas and bus in all the children and teens we can find in the hopes of leading them to Christ; and yet we are still losing them. We see the grown-up children, the "fruits" of our outreaches, living as practical Atheists. They walk and talk and act like the world, even loving the world, and though they claim to be saved, evidence of life in Christ is conspicuously absent. Even our own children are abandoning the faith. They have asked Jesus into their hearts and yet we see them turn from God at staggering rates. Statistics show that no less than half have turned from God by High School age and closer to two thirds by the time they finish college. What we're doing is just not working! In Why Are We Losing the Kids? You'll see where we have gone wrong and where to go from here. - We can turn the tide on our failing ministry efforts! - We can share the gospel without creating false converts or backsliders! - We can keep the kids if we'll follow God's plan! The Bible has the answers if we're willing to hear them!

In recent years, men have been given a lot of mixed messages as to what it means to be a man, husband, or father. Men hate mixed messages. Just tell us like it is (or should be) without all of the extra verbiage. That's exactly what Mike Pearl does in eliminating the conflicting messages and getting to the meat of the matter. Discover God's design for a man and how you can find joy doing what you were designed to do. Learn how love your wife "even as Christ also loved the church." As always, Mike's presentation is direct with no holds barred and he is not afraid to hurt your feelings. With his more than fifty years of Bible study he presents God's perspective on the subject, and his more than years of marriage bears witness to its effectiveness. His wife, Debi Pearl, weighs in to add grace to Mike's to the point writing style.

Based on a readers' poll in Focus on the Family magazine, the values presented here are those which parents feel are most important for their children. The author also provided application methods.

Written for teachers or parents of young children, Singing Lessons for Little Singers offers exciting songs and exercises based on proven pedagogical principles and healthy vocal technique for use in solo or group voice lessons. This revolutionary method was created to fill the great void of private singing lesson materials for children: it combines a system of voice-developing exercises with an ear-training and sight-singing course and a collection of enjoyable songs with entertaining lyrics and delightful illustrations. This powerful, comprehensive method has had great success in developing advanced singing skills, as well as creating many satisfying experiences for students.

This is an account of one of life's most painful experiences--the sudden death of a child. A mother's anguish compels her to examine beliefs about what comes after death and to explore ancient healing methods in Mexico, Brazil, and Bali. At its core a spiritual odyssey, The Sacred Wound is about creating meaning from life-shattering events--events which can utterly destroy us or serve as a call to extraordinary courage and growth. A life-shattering event is a modern day "sacred wound," a wounding so profound that it pierces the soul and penetrates the veils of who we are and what we think life is about. Like a mythological hero, we will emerge from the ordeal another person. As the author says, "For three years grief was my consort, it became my teacher." This inspiring and searingly honest book is about more than survival following the death of a loved one; it is about the gift in tragedy's other hand. It is about discovering the truth that love is the central experience of life and not simply mortality, and that this truth can emerge in ways we can never predict or expect

"Train a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it." [Proverbs 22:6] Although first published more than a century ago, Ryle's The Duties of Parents contains principles of parenting that still resonate today.

To respond to the many letters that Michael and Debi Pearl received after publishing their first book, To Train Up a Child, they started the No Greater Joy magazine. No Greater Joy Volume Two includes articles from the first two years of publication and covers the subjects of rowdy boys, homeschooling, grief, and much more.

A high quality coloring book covering the final chapters of our highly successful Good and Evil Bible Storybook. The book starts with Lesson 10: "Jesus on the Water" and ends with Lesson 12 where "Saul becomes a believer and the Lord changes his name to Paul".

Training children in the way they should go involves more than disciplining them -- there are biblical values to instill and obstacles to help them avoid. As parents train their children, they can be confident that God will give them strength and guidance to give their children everything they need for success. Readers can expect nothing less than God's best for their family as they train up your child in the way he should go!

For people on-the-go who want a daily dose of God ' s truth for their life. You want to spend meaningful time each day with the Lord, but about 10 minutes into your day the demands of life distract and pull at you, and threaten to overshadow your plans for quiet time. Pastor Bryant Wright lends helpful guidance for staying focused on God ' s Word and applying it to your daily living. His to-the-point messages set the tone for living as Jesus lived, no matter your circumstances. Setting aside just a few minutes each day with the Lord can change your heart. The condition of your heart can change your day. And the outcome of your day can change the course of your life for His eternal glory.

The Life Force either will not or cannot achieve immortality except in very low organisms: indeed it is by no means ascertained that even the amoeba is immortal. Human beings visibly wear out, though they last longer than their friends the dogs. Turtles, parrots, and elephants are believed to be capable of outliving the memory of the oldest human inhabitant. But the fact that new ones are born conclusively proves that they are not immortal. Do away with death and you do away with the need for birth: in fact if you went on breeding, you would finally have to kill old people to make room for young ones

The Holy Bible

Old Order Amish and Mennonite Schools

This work is an invitation and guide for young people to bring the realm of Heaven to earth. As children discover their identity and revelation of the Father's love, they are released to fulfill their Royal Mission: to demonstrate the Kingdom of God by living a life of miracles. Each chapter explains and identifies the inheritance that God's sons and daughters possess, such as the Father's love, the anointing and indwelling of the Holy Spirit, faith, prayer, and the keys of power and authority. This book is not only a companion "journey", but also provides a meeting place for children to encounter God's presence that will transform their hearts and lives. This 90 day nightly bible study and prayer book is written expressly to inspire new, or new-in-the-faith Christian parents. Psalm 119, in the middle of the bible, it is the longest chapter in the bible. It is full of wisdom teaching us to love God's law, to write it on our hearts and write it on the palms of our hands. Repetition is key to learning God's laws so when your children are grown, they will not forget. They have repeated it so many times. This is crucial for your children so when they are away from you and are afraid, worried, they have the comfort of the Word of God to rely on. Each day of teaching begins with a scripture directly from King James .org text, then it has a summary from me. Next, there are prayers for you to share with your children so both of you are pra line for suggestion of using your child/children's names in the prayer. At the end of the prayer we pray daily for our leaders a responders to protect them, as God asks us to do. After the prayer there is a question and discussion topic for you to encour understanding of the scripture and the prayer. Inside the middle watermark there is a little extra suggestions or poems for e bedtime prayers with fun ways to interact together. It is with the utmost hope and love, I write these prayers for you and y Repetition is necessary to forge the bridge of safety of God's Word. Be consistent and they will look forward to prayer time bless You!

In 1994 Michael and Debi Pearl published To Train Up a Child. The book has sold over 625,000 copies, becoming "the handbook training" for many families. The Pearls received so many child training questions in the mail that they began publishing a free magazine to answer them--No Greater Joy. As the subscriptions grew into the tens of thousands, subscribers kept asking fo thus the publication of No Greater Joy Volume One, Volume Two and Volume Three--each book representing about two years from back issues of the magazine. If you have read To Train Up a Child and you have questions, chances are you will find the No Greater Joy Volume One, Volume Two, or Volume Three.

To Train Up a Child, first published in 1994, began as a letter to a homeschool mother in answer to her question, "How did yo children to be so happy and obedient?" Mike did not consider himself to be an author, nor did Debi possess the means or the publish a book. They realized that it was a big subject that could not be put into a few pages, so they wrote a book. Friends were consulted, gleaning their views and methods of child training. They analyzed how they were influenced by the traditions from their parents, and they looked at the methods that were unique to their family. Friends and members of their church pe and critiqued the manuscript as it grew to book size. Twenty-one years later, To Train Up a Child has sold over 1.2 million cop languages. TTUAC has been on Amazon's best-seller list several times. This new book has added chapters and several updates Debi have received tens of thousands of letters of gratitude and been approached by thousands of young people thanking th influence in the way they were raised, their parents having implemented the principles expressed in TTUAC. Mike and Debi are have played a part in so many young people's lives. There has been no editing to modify their stance on spanking. To the con the media attacks, they have expanded and strengthened their arguments for traditional, biblical child training. There are now million TTUAC books circulating in the United States that will continue to stand for traditional, biblical parenting.

Train Up Your Child ...

"train Up a Child"-- Yeah, But How?

Train Up a Child in the Way He Should Go...

Have you ever wished for a handbook that could help you train your children to become upstanding, responsible, and successful adults? Unfortunately, many parents feel compelled to raise their children in the same way they were raised, despite the fact that the world is very different than it was when they were children. As a result they may be destined to repeat mistakes their parents made and they risk failing to give their children valuable tools they may need to succeed. Dr. Johnny Holloway, the founder and senior pastor of Cup of Salvation Deliverance Church & Ministries in Durham, North Carolina, helps you transform your approach with this faith-based guide to parenting. Learn how to: build relationships with children based on love and respect; recognize when children are going through difficult times; help children confront and overcome the problems they face; and set high but reasonable expectations for children. Even if you grew up in a loving home, you can improve upon the way you were raised and give your children the tools they need to navigate lifes toughest challenges. Overcome your doubts and fears, and join the author as he looks back at his own upbringing and explores how to Train Up A Child.

Train Up a Child explores how private schools in Old Order Amish communities reflect and perpetuate church-community values and identity. Here, Karen M. Johnson-Weiner asserts that the reinforcement of those values among children is imperative to the survival of these communities in the modern world. Surveying settlements in Indiana, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and New York, Johnson-Weiner finds that, although Old Order communities have certain similarities in their codes of conduct, there is no standard Old Order school. She examines the choices each community makes—about pedagogy, curriculum, textbooks, even school design—to strengthen religious ideology, preserve the social and linguistic markers of Old Order identity, and protect their own community's beliefs and values from the influence of the dominant society. In the most comprehensive study of Old Order schools to date, Johnson-Weiner provides valuable insight into how variables such as community size and relationship with other Old Order groups affect the role of these schools in maintaining behavioral norms and in shaping the Old Order's response to modernity.

" ... provides moms with the guidance they need for training themselves in godliness. Ideal for women's groups and small-group Bible studies"--Cover back.

The prayers of 6-year old Amy to her very best friend, God. God really is Amy's best friend and she treats Him that way. She brings Him a cupcake for his birthday, helps Him out with His problems, asks to become His assistant, and even takes objection to the creation. Why is fun so important? Because it is an avenue to God that is so very, very natural to small children. It gives small children (age 3-6) spirituality with a smile, a great big smile through the practice of nighttime prayer. "Amy's Best Friend, Prayers of a Child" comprises a personal introduction from Amy followed by 14 illustrated prayers, and finally special pages to record a child's own prayers. The book is non-denominational. "Amy's Best Friend" is accompanied by two fun books to support your child's practice of prayer. First, there is a coloring book giving your child hours of fun coloring in the same prayers you have read to him/her. Second, after all the pages at the end of "Amy's Best Friend, Prayers Of A Child" have been filled with your child's own prayers, a prayer journal is available under the name "Amy's Best Friend, Prayers of A Child: My Prayers."
