prostitution. Her life moving quickly in a downward spiral, the chances of her survival were small—until she turned to God. Experience this incredible journey of a woman who refused to give up—against all odds.

Zach and Kody Grant come up with a scheme to bring their divorced parents, Ellie and Tucker, back together--they will run away from home into the Oregon wilderness and stay there until their parents reunite to bring them home.

Each spring a band of gypsies set up camp on the outskirts of the Farthing Manor estate. Every year, on her birthday, Lizbeth Farthington, daughter of the manor, visited the gypsy camp with her beloved Nana. On her 12th birthday, Lizbeth went to the gypsy camp for the last time, because the next day Nana was turned out of the manor, and was replaced by a governess, Miss Plimsol. Before she left the gypsies that day, Lizbeth was allowed to select a gift from the old gypsy, Gizelda. Lizbeth chose a painting of a beautiful, warm cottage — a place she longed to call home, instead of the massive, cold, bleak, Farthing Manor. Over the next several years, whenever Lizbeth was feeling sad or lonely, she would lose herself in the comforting ambiance of her painting.

BlurbAmisha- "We started with a simple hello but ended with a complicated goodbye." I was in love with Avyansh, since the day that I could discern how it feels to be in love. I fell for him irrevocably much before meeting him. It was certain that we would be together one day. But destiny has a way of crushing us, by refusing what we deeply desire. So, despite all certainties and hopes we never crossed paths again after our first meeting. I never got the opportunity to express my feelings & my love remained unrequited. Even after 15 long years he never left my mind and soul though I formally belonged to someone else now. Avyansh- "Meeting you was one of the best accidents of my life. I wish I could go back to that moment, just to experience it all over again."What skipped my heartbeat on our first meeting was a mole on the upper side of her right lip. She didn't need any makeup to entice a man, her mole was more than enough to be someone's death. I broke her heart over a phone call but today when we met after 15 long years, I wanted to turn back the clock and fix what I'd broken. It was my weakness that I could not treasure her. I am tired of hiding the truth and carrying this guilt for so many years. I know I tore her world apart with just my words but over the years not even a single day has passed, when I haven't thought about the hurt & pain I caused her.
